

EQUINE PARASITE SOLUTIONS

Are you Deworming in the Dark?

Discover how to Strategically Deworm for Strategic Performance

A leading laboratory in equine parasite control operated by veterinarians

Your next step to Ultimate Wellness

The Best approach to Protecting your Horse

- 1. Place the manure samples in the refrigerator provided at your favorite Southern States store.
- 2. Quantitative analysis for small strongyles at our lab.
- 3. A report with a strategic deworming schedule provided

Each horse is an individual, so should be your parasite control

240.818.5971

Southmountainequine.com

BENEFITS

Reduces parasite resistance

Deworm only when necessary

Reduces amount of drug entering environment

Improved appearance

Reduction in colic episodes

Reduction in subsequent anthelmintic expenditures

Portion of proceeds supports the American Association of Veterinary Parasitologists and the One Health Campaign!

N.C State Study: over 30 months, decrease the number of dewormings by 75% and decrease cost by 25% in adults.

This method is preferred and endorsed by leading veterinary parasitologists.

How to Gain Optimal Control over Parasites

1. Pasture hygiene
2. Compost manure appropriately
3. Cross graze with beef cattle
4. Manure collection from fields twice weekly

South Mountain Equine LLC (240.818.5971)